

Hello Parents,

Many of you may now be familiar with Artsonia. Artsonia.com is one of the world's largest online art gallery's for publishing student artwork. With this website your students have an online portfolio of their work. This portfolio will follow them through every grade level at Hemby Bridge, when your child is in 5th grade you will have an online collection of any artwork they have had published in previous grades.

In addition to their portfolio, keepsakes can be purchased with your child's artwork on it. Funds generated from this are used to purchase art supplies for the school. In the past we have used a program that allows for one piece of your child's artwork to be used. With their portfolio you have many different choices and keepsakes can be purchased at any time of the year.

If you have not seen your child's artwork featured on the site, expect to soon. If you receive a permission slip for publication, simply sign it a return it to the school, or register online. Providing an email will allow you to receive notifications anytime your child has new artwork published.

Below is a sample of a permisson slip,
